From Stilettos to Moccasins On-Line Workshop Kit Request Form

The From Stilettos to Moccasins workshop kits are available on-line, including:

1 – Facilitator’s manual taking you step-by-step through the workshop

2 – DVDs: a facilitator’s training video & the workshop video presentation (including a chapter legend)

1 – Participant workbook

1 – Participant completion certificate

* Participant workbooks and completion certificates are available, while supplies last, by contacting the Project Coordinator, Nicki Sartoris, at Nicki.Sartorios@usask.ca or (306) 966-6917

The facilitator is responsible for purchasing the mini dream catchers and pearls for the closing exercise (at a cost of approximately $3 per participant). Instructions for ordering them are made available on-line.

By providing us with your contact information, you and/or your organization agree to:

- run the workshop a minimum of two times
- submit the facilitator and participant feedback forms each time the workshop is offered
- not charge a fee to offer the workshop (if applicable, a modest honorarium or travel costs is acceptable)
- not alter the workshop in any major way from its intended goals, format, and content.

______________________________________           ______________________________
Name of Individual or Organization                           Date

___________________________________________   ______________________________
Address       Telephone/Email

************************************************************************************

To submit this request for a workshop kit, or for further information on the project, you can contact the From Stilettos to Moccasins Project Coordinator, Nicki Sartoris, at Nicki.Sartorios@usask.ca or (306) 966-6917.