Actor Cardinal to appear at fundraiser

THE STARPHOENIX MAY 1, 2009

The premiere of a song about living with addiction and a visit from actress Tantoo Cardinal are highlights of this year's fundraising dinner for the Elizabeth Fry Society.

The fundraiser, which starts at 5:30 p.m. on May 13 at the Odeon Events Centre, is called Rebels With a Cause. It honours local women for their feistiness, innovation and determination to change their communities.

This year's honourees are Lynn Thompson, Joanne Horsley, Valerie Desjarlais and Net Davenport.

The evening's entertainment includes the premiere live performance of a song entitled From Stilettoes to Moccasins, sung by Violet Naytowhow. She wrote the song earlier this year with aboriginal women who are recovering from drug addiction and problems with the law.

Saskatoon musician Skip Kutz will also perform earlier in the evening.

Cardinal is the event's "special guest rebel." The actress has appeared in numerous films, including Dances with Wolves and Legends of the Fall, and television shows, including North of 60.

The Elizabeth Fry Society advocates for criminalized women and provides supports and services to help them deal with poverty, violence, discrimination and other challenges.

Tickets are $40 and must be bought in advance from the Elizabeth Fry Society of Saskatchewan, by calling 934-4606, e-mailing cw.efry@sasktel.net or visiting the office at 201-165 Third Ave. South in Saskatoon.
